Rarig Center Room 506

Spaces in Rarig Center are reserved for use as laboratory space by University Theatre staff and currently registered Theatre Arts and Dance students. Rooms are to be used only for directly-related Department activities. Persons or organizations outside the Department are prohibited from using studio or theatre spaces without the express permission of the Managing Director. This is a departmental classroom (more commonly known as Studio A) is used for movement, acting and sound classes. No tap shoes are permitted without prior authorization.